Wheatstone Names Bradley Broadcast and Pro Audio as New Dealer

NEW BERN (September 11, 2007)– Wheatstone Corporation has appointed Bradley Broadcast and Pro Audio as national dealer in the Audioarts line of broadcast audio consoles and the Vorsis® line of professional digital audio processors.

Bradley Broadcast's President David Matthews commented:

"Becoming an Audioarts dealer is a significant leap forward for Bradley and a key part of our strategy for growth. Wheatstone is perhaps the largest and most successful manufacturer of broadcast audio consoles in the world, and their Audioarts line of consoles reflects a level of quality, excellence, and support that we are very proud to be associated with."

"This is also a unique opportunity for Bradley be right there at the launch of one some of the most interesting developments in audio processing in the last decade: the Vorsis AP-1000, Vorsis AM-5 and Vorsis FM-5 processors.

About Bradley Broadcast Sales:

Bradley Broadcast Sales has been a national dealer in broadcast and professional audio equipment and supplies for over 23 years.
